Accompanying the Statement Under 37 C.F.R. 3.73(b) are copies of two agreements (dated January, 16, 2001 and May 15, 2002 (as amended)) between Edsoft Software Corporation ("Edsoft") and Voyager Expanded Learning, Inc. ("Voyager") whereby Voyager agreed to assign all right, title and interest to Edsoft, and further agreed that "any and all inventions, modifications, enhancements, derivative works, discoveries, processes, methods, designs and know-how, whether or not copyrightable or patentable, which Edsoft may conceive or make, either alone or with others . . . shall be the exclusive property of Edsoft." See, Section 5.0 of each agreement.

Consulting Agreement - Terms and Conditions

EdSoft Software Corporation

1.0 Fees and Billing Practices

1.1 Consulting and Training Fees

The following describes the terms and conditions under which EdSoft Software Corporation ("EdSoft" or "we") will charge for services provided to Voyager Expanded Learning ("Customer" or "you"). Unless expressly explained otherwise herein, fees quoted are based upon hourly billing rates and are not flat fees. You may enlist our assistance at whatever level you need, paying only for what you use. Since there are no fixed fees involved, you can exercise considerable control over your total consulting costs. Travel time outside of the Dallas area is billed at one half of the normal hourly rate. "Outside of the Dallas area" is defined as a location farther than 30 miles from our office located in North Dallas. In the interest of efficiency, on-site visits will be allocated a minimum of two hours.

1.1.1 Standard Hourly Rates. Our fees for consulting and development services are based primarily on the hourly rates in effect for each consultant in our firm at the time the services are rendered. Our consultants have the following standard hourly rates:

Staff Level	Standard Rate
Consulting Manager	150
Senior Consultant	125
Consultant	100

We review these rates periodically and they are subject to change. You will be notified in writing of any changes in rate.

1.1.2 Out-of-Pocket Expenses. Also included with our fee billings will be any out-of-pocket expenses incurred in the course of our service delivery to you. These expenses will be billed to you at our cost, unless other arrangements have been made in advance.

1.1.3 Payment. You will receive a semi-monthly invoice for services rendered and expenses. Payment for those fees and expenses will be made within 10 days of the date of that invoice. Any questions about the invoice will also be made within 10 days of the invoice date.

1.1.4 Billing. The reason we submit our bills to our clients on a semi-monthly basis shortly after the services are rendered is so you will have a ready means of monitoring and controlling the expenses you are incurring. If you believe the expenses are mounting too rapidly, please contact us immediately so we can assist you in evaluating how they might be curtailed or limited in the future. When we do not hear from you, we assume that you approve of the overall level of activity on our part in this engagement on your behalf.

You are requested to review each billing and to discuss any questions with your account executive concerning the level of activities, the nature of services rendered, and specific items on the bill prior to the next billing cycle. This allows us to quickly provide you responses to your queries.

1.1.5 Third Party Costs. We may have you pay an advance against any third-party costs which require out-of-pocket expenditures by us.

2.0 Responsibility For Third Parties

A software implementation may involve the efforts of several parties: Software developers, hardware providers, consultants, your company personnel, and possibly others. While we guarantee our services, we cannot be responsible for the products and services of other parties not under our control. We will, however, work with you at our normal hourly rates to resolve any problems caused by incompatibilities or failures of other parties' products or services. This includes, but is not limited to, any of our time required to research, test, evaluate, restore corrupted or erroneous data, or consult with outside technical support resources for problems caused by bugs in software that we did not write. Likewise, we will bill for any time we spend helping you troubleshoot or repair computer hardware or accessories we did not provide.

EDSOFT DISCLAIMS ALL OTHER WARRANTIES, EITHER EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, INCLUDING BUT NOT LIMITED TO IMPLIED WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY AND FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, WITH RESPECT TO THE SERVICES.

4.0 Confidentiality

Because of the consulting engagement, the parties may have access to information that is confidential to one another ("Confidential Information"). "Confidential Information" means non-public information that the disclosing party designates as being confidential or which under the circumstances surrounding disclosure ought to be treated as confidential. "Confidential Information" includes, without limitation, information relating to the disclosing party's software or hardware products which may include source code, API data files, documentation, specifications, data bases, networks, system design, file layouts, tool combinations and development methods as well as information relating to the disclosing party's business or financial affairs, which may include business methods, marketing strategies, pricing, competitor information, product development strategies and methods, customer lists and financial results. Confidential Information also includes information received from others that the disclosing party is obligated to treat as confidential and oral information that is identified by the disclosing party as confidential. Confidential Information disclosed by a subsidiary of the disclosing party and/or its agents is covered by this Agreement. Confidential Information includes all tangible materials which contain Confidential Information whether written or printed documents, computer disks or tapes whether user or machine-readable. Confidential Information shall not include any information that (1) is already known to the receiving party or its affiliates, free of any obligation to keep it confidential; (2) is or becomes publicly known through no wrongful act of the receiving party or its affiliates; (3) is received by the receiving party from a third party without any restriction on confidentiality; (4) is independently developed by the receiving party or its affiliates; (5) is disclosed to third parties by the disclosing party without any obligation of confidentiality; or (6) is approved for release by prior written authorization of the disclosing party. The parties agree to maintain the confidentiality of the Confidential Information and to protect as a trade secret any portion of the other party's Confidential Information by preventing any unauthorized copying, use, distribution, installation or transfer of possession of such information. Each party agrees to maintain at least the same procedures regarding Confidential Information that it maintains with respect to its own Confidential Information. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, neither party shall permit any of its personnel to remove any proprietary or other legend or restrictive notice contained or included in any material provided by the disclosing party and the receiving party shall not permit its personnel to reproduce or copy any such material except as expressly authorized thereunder. One party's Confidential Information may only be used by the other party in order to fulfill its obligations under this Agreement. Both parties acknowledge that any use or disclosure of the other party's Confidential Information in a manner inconsistent with the provisions of the engagement letter may cause the non-disclosing party irreparable damage for which remedies other than injunctive relief may be inadequate, and both parties agree that the non-disclosing party may request injunctive or other equitable relief seeking to restrain such use or disclosure.

The terms and provisions of this Section 3 shall survive any termination of the engagement letter for any reason for a period of 5 years.

6.0 Term and Termination

The term of this consulting agreement shall commence on the date hereof and, unless earlier terminated as provided below, shall continue until completion of the services outlined in an engagement letter regarding the particular matter in which EdSoft shall act as a consultant under this agreement ("Services"). In the event of any breach of any term or provision of this consulting agreement by either party, the other party may cancel this consulting agreement by giving thirty (30) days prior written notice thereof; provided, however, that this consulting agreement shall not terminate at the end of the thirty (30) day notice period if the party in breach has cured the breach to the satisfaction of the other party prior to the expiration of the thirty (30) day period. In addition, Customer shall have the right to terminate this consulting agreement or any individual engagement letter without cause upon fifteen (15) days prior written notice to EdSoft. In such case, Customer shall be responsible for payment of all Services rendered prior to the date of termination.

7.0 Limitation of Liability

8.0 No Liability for Consequential Damages

In no event shall EdSoft be liable for any indirect, incidental, consequential, special or exemplary damages whatsoever (including, without limitation, damages for loss of business profits, business interruption, loss of business information, or other pecuniary loss) arising out of this consulting agreement or the performance or failure to perform Services, or for acts of negligence that are not reckless or intentional in nature, even if EdSoft has been advised of the possibility of such damages.

No modification, amendment, supplement to or waiver of this engagement letter or any exhibit hereunder shall be binding upon the parties hereto unless made in writing and duly signed by both parties.

Services provided pursuant to this agreement may be estimated and enumerated by specific supplemental proposals for work prepared by EdSoft and accepted by Customer. Unless otherwise documented and agreed to, all work performed by EdSoft will be governed by and subject to the terms and conditions specified in this agreement.

12.0 Severability

In the event any one or more of the provisions of this engagement letter or of any exhibit is held to be invalid or otherwise unenforceable, the enforceability of the remaining provisions shall be unimpaired.

13.0 Arbitration

Except for collection actions for payment of fees and for the right of either party to apply to a court of competent jurisdiction for a temporary restraining order, a preliminary injunction, or other equitable relief to preserve the status quo or prevent irreparable harm, any controversy or claim arising out of or relating to this engagement letter or to its breach shall be settled by arbitration by a single arbitrator in accordance with American Arbitration Rules, pursuant to an arbitration held in Dallas County, Texas, and judgment upon the award rendered by the arbitrator may be entered in any court of competent jurisdiction. The prevailing party shall be entitled to receive from the other party its attorneys fees and costs incurred in connection with any action, proceeding or arbitration hereunder.

14.0 Hiring of EdSoft Personnel

Customer acknowledges that EdSoft provides a valuable service by identifying and assigning personnel for Customer's work. Customer further acknowledges that Customer would receive substantial additional value and EdSoft would be deprived of the benefits of its work force, if Customer were to directly hire EdSoft's personnel after they have been introduced to Customer by EdSoft. Without the prior written consent of EdSoft, Customer shall not recruit or hire any personnel of EdSoft who are or have been assigned to perform work until one (1) year after the completion of the engagement in effect between the parties. ## Consulting Agreement - Terms and Conditions

EdSoft Software Corporation

1.0 Fees and Billing Practices

1.1 Consulting and Training Fees

The following describes the terms and conditions under which EdSoft Software Corporation ("EdSoft" or "we") will charge for services provided to Voyager Expanded Learning ("Customer" or "you"). Unless expressly explained otherwise herein, fees quoted are based upon hourly billing rates and are not flat fees. You may enlist our assistance at whatever level you need, paying only for what you use. Since there are no fixed fees involved, you can exercise considerable control over your total consulting costs. Travel time outside of the Dallas area is billed at one half of the normal hourly rate. "Outside of the Dallas area" is defined as a location farther than 30 miles from our office located in North Dallas. In the interest of efficiency, on-site visits will be allocated a minimum of two hours.

1.1.1 Standard Hourly Rates. Our fees for consulting and development services are based primarily on the hourly rates in effect for each consultant in our firm at the time the services are rendered. Our consultants have the following standard hourly rates:

Staff Level	Standard Rate
Consulting Manager	150
Senior Consultant	125
Consultant	100

We review these rates periodically and they are subject to change. You will be notified in writing of any changes in rate.

1.1.2 Out-of-Pocket Expenses. Also included with our fee billings will be any out-of-pocket expenses incurred in the course of our service delivery to you. These expenses will be billed to you at our cost, unless other arrangements have been made in advance.

1.1.3 Payment. You will receive a semi-monthly invoice for services rendered and expenses. Payment for those fees and expenses will be made within 10 days of the date of that invoice. Any questions about the invoice will also be made within 10 days of the invoice date.

1.1.4 Billing. The reason we submit our bills to our clients on a semi-monthly basis shortly after the services are rendered is so you will have a ready means of monitoring and controlling the expenses you are incurring. If you believe the expenses are mounting too rapidly, please contact us immediately so we can assist you in evaluating how they might be curtailed or limited in the future. When we do not hear from you, we assume that you approve of the overall level of activity on our part in this engagement on your behalf.

You are requested to review each billing and to discuss any questions with your account executive concerning the level of activities, the nature of services rendered, and specific items on the bill prior to the next billing cycle. This allows us to quickly provide you responses to your queries.

1.1.5 Third Party Costs. We may have you pay an advance against any third-party costs which require out-of-pocket expenditures by us.

2.0 Responsibility For Third Parties

A software implementation may involve the efforts of several parties: Software developers, hardware providers, consultants, your company personnel, and possibly others. While we guarantee our services, we cannot be responsible for the products and services of other parties not under our control. We will, however, work with you at our normal hourly rates to resolve any problems caused by incompatibilities or failures of other parties' products or services. This includes, but is not limited to, any of our time required to research, test, evaluate, restore corrupted or erroneous data, or consult with outside technical support resources for problems caused by bugs in software that we did not write. Likewise, we will bill for any time we spend helping you troubleshoot or repair computer hardware or accessories we did not provide.

3.0 Warranties

EdSoft warrants that it has full power and authority to enter into the consulting agreement and perform the Services contemplated therein. EdSoft warrants that all Services will be performed consistent with generally accepted industry standards. This warranty shall be valid for 90 days from performance of the Services. EDSOFT DISCLAIMS ALL OTHER WARRANTIES, EITHER EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, INCLUDING BUT NOT LIMITED TO IMPLIED WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY AND FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, WITH RESPECT TO THE SERVICES.

4.0 Confidentiality

Because of the consulting engagement, the parties may have access to information that is confidential to one another ("Confidential Information"). "Confidential Information" means non-public information that the disclosing party designates as being confidential or which under the circumstances surrounding disclosure ought to be treated as confidential. "Confidential Information" includes, without limitation, information relating to the disclosing party's software or hardware products which may include source code, API data files, documentation, specifications, data bases, networks, system design, file layouts, tool combinations and development methods as well as information relating to the disclosing party's business or financial affairs, which may include business methods, marketing strategies, pricing, competitor information, product development strategies and methods, customer lists and financial results. Confidential Information also includes information received from others that the disclosing party is obligated to treat as confidential and oral information that is identified by the disclosing party as confidential. Confidential Information disclosed by a subsidiary of the disclosing party and/or its agents is covered by this Agreement. Confidential Information includes all tangible materials which contain Confidential Information whether written or printed documents, computer disks or tapes whether user or machine-readable. Confidential Information shall not include any information that (1) is already known to the receiving party or its affiliates, free of any obligation to keep it confidential; (2) is or becomes publicly known through no wrongful act of the receiving party or its affiliates; (3) is received by the receiving party from a third party without any restriction on confidentiality; (4) is independently developed by the receiving party or its affiliates; (5) is disclosed to third parties by the disclosing party without any obligation of confidentiality; or (6) is approved for release by prior written authorization of the disclosing party. The parties agree to maintain the confidentiality of the Confidential Information and to protect as a trade secret any portion of the other party's Confidential Information by preventing any unauthorized copying, use, distribution, installation or transfer of possession of such information. Each party agrees to maintain at least the same procedures regarding Confidential Information that it maintains with respect to its own Confidential Information. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, neither party shall permit any of its personnel to remove any proprietary or other legend or restrictive notice contained or included in any material provided by the disclosing party and the receiving party shall not permit its personnel to reproduce or copy any such material except as expressly authorized thereunder. One party's Confidential Information may only be used by the other party in order to fulfill its obligations under this Agreement.

Both parties acknowledge that any use or disclosure of the other party's Confidential Information in a manner inconsistent with the provisions of the engagement letter may cause the non-disclosing party irreparable damage for which remedies other than injunctive relief may be inadequate, and both parties agree that the non-disclosing party may request injunctive or other equitable relief seeking to restrain such use or disclosure.

The terms and provisions of this Section 3 shall survive any termination of the engagement letter for any reason for a period of 5 years.

6.0 Term and Termination

The term of this consulting agreement shall commence on the date hereof and, unless earlier terminated as provided below, shall continue until completion of the services outlined in an engagement letter regarding the particular matter in which EdSoft shall act as a consultant under this agreement ("Services"). In the event of any breach of any term or provision of this consulting agreement by either party, the other party may cancel this consulting agreement by giving thirty (30) days prior written notice thereof; provided, however, that this consulting agreement shall not terminate at the end of the thirty (30) day notice period if the party in breach has cured the breach to the satisfaction of the other party prior to the expiration of the thirty (30) day period. In addition, Customer shall have the right to terminate this consulting agreement or any individual engagement letter without cause upon fifteen (15) days prior written notice to EdSoft. In such case, Customer shall be responsible for payment of all Services rendered prior to the date of termination.

7.0 Limitation of Liability

EdSoft's entire liability to Customer or any other party for any loss or damage resulting from any claims, demands or actions arising out of this consulting agreement or the performance of or failure to perform the Services shall not exceed the fees paid to EdSoft for the Services.

No modification, amendment, supplement to or waiver of this engagement letter or any exhibit hereunder shall be binding upon the parties hereto unless made in writing and duly signed by both parties.

Services provided pursuant to this agreement may be estimated and enumerated by specific supplemental proposals for work prepared by EdSoft and accepted by Customer. Unless otherwise documented and agreed to, all work performed by EdSoft will be governed by and subject to the terms and conditions specified in this agreement.

12.0 Severability

In the event any one or more of the provisions of this engagement letter or of any exhibit is held to be invalid or otherwise unenforceable, the enforceability of the remaining provisions shall be unimpaired.

13.0 Arbitration

Except for collection actions for payment of fees and for the right of either party to apply to a court of competent jurisdiction for a temporary restraining order, a preliminary injunction, or other equitable relief to preserve the status quo or prevent irreparable harm, any controversy or claim arising out of or relating to this engagement letter or to its breach shall be settled by arbitration by a single arbitrator in accordance with American Arbitration Rules, pursuant to an arbitration held in Dallas County, Texas, and judgment upon the award rendered by the arbitrator may be entered in any court of competent jurisdiction. The prevailing party shall be entitled to receive from the other party its attorneys fees and costs incurred in connection with any action, proceeding or arbitration hereunder.

14.0 Hiring of EdSoft Personnel

Customer acknowledges that EdSoft provides a valuable service by identifying and assigning personnel for Customer's work. Customer further acknowledges that Customer would receive substantial additional value and EdSoft would be deprived of the benefits of its work force, if Customer were to directly hire EdSoft's personnel after they have been introduced to Customer by EdSoft. Without the prior written consent of EdSoft, Customer shall not recruit or hire any personnel of EdSoft who are or have been assigned to perform work until one (1) year after the completion of the engagement in effect between the parties. In the event that Customer hires any personnel of EdSoft who are or have been assigned to perform work for Customer, Customer shall pay EdSoft within 60 days of the date of such hiring, an amount equal to fifty percent (50%) of the total current-year compensation (twelve month) EdSoft pays such personnel as a fee for the additional benefit obtained by Customer.
